Toward the players took a decided brace and for a ime the Shortridge basket was in danger of being swamped. However, clever work by Gipe kept the ball away from Shortridge territory in the last few minutes of play and the blacksmiths were defeated.

Several surprises were uncovered in last night's Independent League series. The Rinky Dinks, who had a disastrous series with the Dewey team in last week's series, showed greatly improved form, and divided honors with the high-rolling Rambiers. The Dewey team dropped back to its usual rut and lost five out of six games to the Reliance Club. The Royals won four out of six hotly contested games from the Alcazar five. The games between the Prospect and Pud No teams, which were to have been rolled on the Pastime alleys, were postponed. Duvelle, of the Rinky Dinks, tabbed the high individual score, with a mark of 234. He was closely pressed by Dierkes, of the Royals, who rolled scores of 223, 178 and 232, giving him an average of 212 1-3 for the series. Greinsteiner, of the Rinkys, was third, with 231. Sixteen doubles were rolled. The meeting of Purdue students in Fowler Hall this morning it was agreed upon that Purdue relay team should be sent to compete in the annual Philadelphia contest this spring and solicitors were named to canvass the student body to raise a fund for defraying the expenses of such a project. Athletics in general were boomed by enthusiastic talks on the part of faculty, athletic managers and athletes and that the sentiments of the speakers were echoed in meeting and spoke briefly in outlining the purpose of the gathering. President Stone followed. He said that the faculty heartily concurred in any plan to improve athletics and increase interest among the students. He said that the outlook for a successful season seemed good in spite of all setbacks and referred feelingly to the athletes who met death in the Big Four disaster. Lacey Heart, captain of the track team, followed with a short talk favoring committee, said that the student body were a team sent East. Captain Peck, of Second-Three-quarters of a mile, maiden | the basketball team, and Athletic Director would not be possible to maintain a team.
